Privacy Policy of the Exscan Arbitrage Platform

EXSCAN ARBITRAGE LLC | Commonwealth of Kentucky, United States

EXSCAN ARBITRAGE LLC (“Exscan Arbitrage”, “we”, “our”, or “us”) is fully committed to protecting the privacy and security of the personal data of our users (“you”, “your”). This Privacy Policy explains what data we collect, how we use it, and the measures we take to safeguard your information. We strive for transparency and security so that every client can feel confident and safe while using our Platform.

1. Information We Collect

To provide high-quality services and personalize your experience, we may collect the following information:

- Personal data: name, email address, contact phone number, account information, and financial details.
- Technical data: device information, IP address, browser data, operating system, as well as information about visits to our website and use of our Platform.
- Financial data: transaction information, investment package activity, and other data necessary to provide access to our services.

2. How We Use Your Data

We use your information for the following purposes:

- Providing access to the Platform: creating and managing your account, granting access to investment packages, and enabling the Company’s cryptocurrency arbitrage activities on your behalf.
- Improving our services: personalizing your interaction with the Platform, optimizing functionality, and enhancing the performance of our arbitrage systems (including AI, exchange APIs, and related software).
- Communicating with you: providing up-to-date information about the Platform, sending transaction notifications, and important updates or offers.
- Security and protection: applying high security standards to protect your data, prevent fraudulent activity, and stop unauthorized use of the Platform.

3. Data Protection

Your security is our top priority. We take all reasonable measures to protect your data:

- Data encryption: All data is transmitted using reliable encryption methods to prevent unauthorized access.
- Access control: Access to personal data is limited to authorized personnel only, and all information is protected by robust security protocols.
- Security system updates: We continuously update our data protection technologies and test systems for vulnerabilities to maintain the highest level of security.

4. Your Rights and Control Over Your Data

We give you full control over your data and guarantee the following rights:

- Right of access: You may request access to your personal data at any time.
- Right to rectification and erasure: You have the right to correct or delete your personal data upon request.
- Right to opt out of communications: You may opt out of receiving informational emails and offers from Exscan Arbitrage if they are no longer of interest to you.

5. Data Retention Period

We retain your personal data only for as long as necessary to fulfill our obligations to you or to comply with legal requirements. After this period, we securely delete or anonymize your data.

6. Disclosure of Data to Third Parties

We never share your personal data with third parties without your consent, except when necessary to fulfill our contractual obligations to you or to comply with laws and regulations. When data is shared, we select only trusted and reliable partners who also adhere to high privacy standards.

7. Children’s Privacy Policy

The Exscan Arbitrage Platform is not intended for use by persons under the age of 18, and we do not knowingly collect personal data from such individuals.

8. Use of Cookies

We use cookies to optimize your interaction with our Platform, remember your preferences, and provide a more personalized experience. You can manage cookies through your browser settings.

9. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to amend this Privacy Policy. In the event of updates, you will be notified by email or through the Platform. We recommend that you review this Policy regularly to stay informed of the most current provisions.

10. Contact Information

If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy or wish to exercise your rights, you may contact our support team:
